GLOBAL ADS PERFORMANCE ANALYSIS

Track campaign performance across platforms, industries and countries

The analysis reveals that the UAE is the strongest-performing market, leading in both revenue and conversions, with an average ROAS(Return On Ad Spend) of 6.96. Search campaigns consistently deliver the highest revenue, conversions, and ROAS, making them the most effective campaign type. Google Ads drives the highest ad spend, revenue, and conversions, while TikTok Ads achieves the best overall ROAS and revenue contribution. The SaaS industry generates the highest revenue and conversions, with platform-specific strengths across TikTok Ads, Meta Ads, and Google Ads. Key Influencer analysis indicates that higher spend, improved ROAS, and increased conversions are the primary factors driving revenue growth, providing valuable insights for optimizing future advertising strategies.
